Disappointment Expressed Over Failure to Continue Advance and Retain Activity.

BY BROADAN WALL.

New York, January 1. Traders drew com-set and profit from io-day's stock market, fuctuations were numerous and wide nough and wide enough for the floor opera-r to get in and out, and away with a r to get in and out, and away with a shave."
Residing zig-zagged from 16% to 168% seveloped, and just under 170 the entire capidistock appeared to be for sale.
Little difficulty was found in moving upsystem of the less active issues. Southern acific was jumped from 19% to 16%, and the dvance held. Traction shares responded asily, but failed to make any material gain.
Harvester rose from 16% to 16%, and asic move had been promised, several profits ere "socoped" by the professional. Short overing advanced Northern Pacific a full oint. The quarterly dividend comes off on riday.

The labor men claimed the court had no right to try them a second time because of the statute of limitation limiting the time for prosecuting crimes to three years.

DANVILLE MAN SUICIDE.

Danville, Va., January 7.—A. F. Chatelain, aged forty-five years, a well-known citizen, committed suicide here this morning in the store of his brother by shooting himself through the head. He asked his brother by shooting himself through the head. He asked his brother.

Our President Is Out of the City.

It is seldom he is; but when it comes to helping Richmond, as in this Regional Bank matter, he is only too glad to go.

However, remember that the absence of one or more officials does not interfere with the activities of this company. We are always present and wide awake.

Just what this new message contains is known only to the President, and no inkling

While to-day was a day of work for the President, there were likewise inclidents of difficulty in determining which of the men who stood before him was the President, so feeble had his eyesight become.

"I'm Ben Williams, Jeft Davis's old body
servant," he said "and I wanted to meet
Mr. Wilson."

The President stepped forward and shook his hand. He asked the negro's age.

"I'm spect I'm seventy-five, anyway," was the reply.

The old residence of Jefferson Davis,
which is now used as a Confederate Soldiery'

and the negro has lived in this vicinity contion.

As the President motored back to his cottage after golf, he distributed a lot of

To-morrow the presidential automobile will carry more candy, as there wasn't enough to go around to-day. Ever since the holiday season began the President's family has been

So the President thought it a good idea to give some of the sweets to the children who wave their little American flags each day
when he passes, and always seem so glad to see him.

Appears Before Supreme Court in Behalf of Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison.

Washington, January 7.—Alton B. Parker to-day began a defense before the Supreme Court of Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison against charges of contempt of court, of which the labor leaders were convicted in the courts of the District of Court in the courts of the District of Colum bia. Mr. Gompers was the only defen dant present.

Mr. Parker presented the case from different angle from that submitted when the original appeal was argued in 1911. He declared utterances which were made the basis for contempt pro ceedings were not designed to violate the District Supreme Court's boycott injunction, issued in favor of the Buck's Stove and Range Company, but were a part of the campaign to induce Con-gress to remedy the threatened dan-$3.809 It was held in this case that the Sherman antitrust law applied to labor or Labor appreciated then, he added, what the public has learned only late-ly—that the National Association of Manufacturers was engaged in a great fight to wipe labor organizations out of existence.

The District Supreme Court held the labor men guifty of contempt for al-leged violation of its injunction not to boycott the Buck's Stove and Range Company, of St. Louis, Mo.
